

Susan W. Hammond, Ph.D.
8720 Georgia Ave.
Suite 300
Silver Spring, MD 20910

EDUCATION

University of Delaware, Newark, DE.

January 1995: Ph.D., Clinical Psychology
Dissertation: Role of Appraisal in Coping

May 1989: M.A., Clinical Psychology
Thesis: Social Environments and Adjustment to Summer Camp

N.I.H. Training Fellowship, 1985 - 1986

Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA.

May 1982: Bachelor of Arts in history
Graduated as a Wellesley Scholar (Cum Laude)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

William Stixrud and Associates, Silver Spring, MD
Psychologist: December, 2000 - present

Psychological evaluation of children and adolescents, including cognitive, attentional, learning, and emotional disabilities. Parent counseling and consultation. Supervision of psychological associates.

William Stixrud and Associates, Silver Spring, MD
Psychological Assistant: September, 1997 - December, 2000

Psychological evaluation of children and adolescents, including cognitive, attentional, learning, and emotional disabilities.

Howard University, Washington, DC
February - April 1993: Guest Lecturer

Taught five session sequence on psychological evaluation to graduate course for counseling and educational psychologists in School of Education.

Terry Children's Psychiatric Center, New Castle, DE
January 1989 - July 1991: Child Psychologist I

Experience included psychological and psychometric testing, and individual and family therapy, as well as consultation with schools and group homes on individual cases.

CLINICAL TRAINING

Commission on Mental Health Services, Washington, DC.
September 1991 - September 1993:
Clinical Psychology Intern and Resident

Experience included psychological, neuropsychological, and psychometric evaluations, and individual, family, and group therapy with children and adolescents. Also responsible for case management, school consultation, working with involved agencies. During second year supervised graduate externs on evaluation. Taught one-day Rorschach refresher course for Clinical Psychology Interns and one-year testing course for Clinical Psychology Externs. Placement sites: Northwest Family Center, ACCESS/Central Intake Division, Noyes Elementary School.

Terry Children's Psychiatric Center, New Castle, DE
September 1987 - December 1988: Practicum Student, Intern

Experience included psychological and psychometric testing, and individual and family therapy, as well as consultation with schools and group homes on individual cases. Terry Center is a state-run facility with Inpatient, Day Hospital, Outpatient and Assessment units for children 12 and under.

ACTIVITIES AND ASSOCIATIONS

American Psychological Association: Member, 1995 to present;
Student Affiliate, 1986 - 1994.

Trustee, Farm & Wilderness Foundation, Plymouth, VT.
1981 - 1987.

Maryland Psychology License Number 03720